The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, June 9, 1763. [Nº. 944.]

From the London Gazette. Nº 10292.

St. JAMES's, March 5.

THE two following Addreſſes of the Lieutenant-Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland, have been preſented to their Majeſties: Which Addreſſes their Majeſties were pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

JOyful beyond Expreſſion at an Event ſo intereſting to your Majeſty and your People, as the auſpicious Birth of a Prince, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor and Council of your Province of Maryland, humbly beg Leave to offer their moſt hearty Congratulations.

Convinced of your Majeſty's paternal Regard and Affection for all your Subjects, however remote from your Royal Preſence, and truly grateful for the Bleſſings derived to your Dominions from your glorious Reign, we entertain the moſt ardent Hopes, that your Majeſty and our moſt gracious Queen, happy in each other, in your Offspring, and your People, will long continue to enjoy every Felicity whereof human Nature is capable; and that your Royal Iſſue, formed by your Parental Care and Illuſtrious Example, may, with the Britiſh Crown, inherit the eminent and princely Virtues, which at this Period ſo conſpicuouſly adorn it.

HOR°. SHARPE, Lieut. Governor.
BENJ. TASKER, Preſ. of the Council.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

GRaciouſly to accept the dutiful Congratulations of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland, on an Event which hath gratified the ardent Wiſhes of your Majeſty's Subjects, and given them new Cauſe joyfully to commemorate your conjugal Union with our beloved and glorious King.

Thankful to Heaven for the Proſpect now afforded us, that the ineſtimable Bleſſings we ourſelves enjoy under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, will be continued to Poſterity, we moſt fervently pray, that every pleaſing Hope, your Majeſty can entertain, may be accompliſhed; that you may continue the Delight of your Royal Conſort; be the happieſt of Mothers; and, as at preſent, ever be beloved by a grateful and affectionate People.

HOR°. SHARPE, Lieut. Governor.
BENJ. TASKER, Preſ. of the Council.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip between Us, the Moſt Chriſtian King, and the King of Spain, to which the King of Portugal hath acceded, hath been concluded at Paris on the Tenth Day of [illegible] laſt; In Conformity thereunto, We have thought fit hereby to command, that the ſame be publiſhed throughout all Our Dominions; And We do declare to all Our loving Subjects Our Will and Pleaſure, that the ſaid Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip be obſerved inviolably, as well by Sea as Land, and in all Places whatſoever, ſtrictly charging and commanding all Our loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and to conform themſelves thereunto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the [illegible] Day of March, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

LONDON, March [illegible].

Yeſterday Morning the Peace was proclaimed, purſuant to his Majeſty's royal Warrant, ſigned by the [illegible]. The Ceremony was as follows:

At Ten o'Clock the Officers of Arms aſſembled at St. James's Gate, properly habited, on Horſeback; where the Proclamation of his Majeſty's Declaration of Peace was made, with the uſual Solemnity.

From thence they marched to Charing-Croſs, in the following Order, viz.

Guards to Clear the Way.
Conſtables and Beadles, two and two, bare-headed, with Staves.
The high Conſtable.
The Officers of the High Bailiff of Weſtminſter.
The high Bailiff.
The Grenadier Guards.
Knights, Marſhal Men, two and two.
The King's Trumpets.
The Serjeant Trumpeter, bearing his Mace.
Purſuivants and Heralds, two and two.
Norroy King at Arms, having on each ſide a Serjeant at Arms with a Mace.
Garter, Principal King at Arms.
A Troop of Horſe Guards.

At Charing-Croſs Peace was proclaimed a ſecond Time.

From thence they proceeded to Temple-Bar, where the Officers of Weſtminſter retired, and within the Gate the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs performed the uſual Ceremony at their Entrance into the City.

Then Proclamation was made a third Time at the End of Chancery-Lane; then at the End of Wood-ſtreet, in Cheapſide, where the Croſs formerly ſtood.

And the fifth and laſt Time at the Royal Exchange, during Change Time.

Their Majeſties, and moſt of the Royal Family, were at the Windows over the Gate-way at St. James's, to hear the Proclamation read.

It is ſaid the Peace was proclaimed Yeſterday, by Agreement, in Paris, Madrid, and Liſbon, as well as London.

Paul Fiſher, Eſq; of Clifton, near Briſtol, who died lately, has left to the Magdalen Hoſpital 200l. and to the Society for propagating the Goſpel 2000l. to be diſpoſed of in the following Manner; 500l. for propagating of the Goſpel in America, 500l. for encouraging the Proteſtant Working Schools in Ireland, and the remaining 1000l. for the Uſe of the firſt Biſhop that ſhall be appointed in America, with the Intereſt of the ſame, provided ſuch a See be conſtituted in 25 Years. And it is greatly to be hoped that ſuch a well intended Bequeſt will not be loſt for ſuch a neceſſary Eſtabliſhment in our now widely extended Empire in America; eſpecially as many Roman Biſhops have been long eſtabliſhed in thoſe Parts by the French and Spaniards.

The late worthy Biſhop of Cloyne has told us, that in 1755 there were many Churches vacant in our Plantations, and many very ill ſupplied; nor could all the Vigilance and Wiſdom of that Prelate, whoſe peculiar Care it was, prevent this, ſo long as thoſe Churches are ſupplied from England: And ſupplied they muſt be with ſuch as can be picked up in England or Ireland, until a Nurſery of Learning for the Education of the Natives is founded; which might provide a conſtant Succeſſion of learned and exemplary Paſtors; and we may eaſily judge what Effect this muſt be ſuppoſed to have on their Flocks.

Moſt certainly, the Eſtabliſhment of Epiſcopacy in our American Empire would be attended with infinite Advantages, as well to the Mother Country, as to her Colonies. American Miſſionaries may be then employed for the Converſion of America, and the Savages be brought to a Life of Civility and Religion.

The laſt Reſort of Juſtice in our Colonies is ſolely lodged in the King's ſacred Perſon, with the Advice of his Privy Council, excluſive of Weſtminſter-Hall, or any other Judicature. The brightening of this Jewel in the Crown, may not perhaps be thought unworthy the Care of the preſent happy Reign, to which the Improvement and future Security of ſo large a Part of the Britiſh Dominions, the Advancement of Trade, univerſally ſupporting the glorious Cauſe of Liberty, ſeem to be reſerved by the peculiar Hand of Providence.

It is ſaid, that the Deſign of putting all our Provinces in North-America under military Government, is laid aſide.

The Betty and Ruth, Truman, of Boſton, was ſpoke with by the Betty, from Maryland, bound to the Orkneys, having loſt her Main-maſt.

This Day the Definitive Treaty of Peace was proclaimed at the uſual Places round the out Parts of London and Weſtminſter, by the Sheriff of Middleſex, attended by the proper Officers.

We are informed, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Harcourt, Maſter of the Horſe to the Queen, will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

And that James Stuart Mackenzie, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the County of Roſs in Scotland, will go Ambaſſador to the Court of France, on the Return of his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

March 28. The King of Pruſſia is coining new Specie to the Amount of Ten Millions of Crowns.

A Contract has been made by a French Commiſſary now in England, for Twenty Thouſand Suits of Cloaths, for the Uſe of the French Priſoners, to be delivered before their Departure for their own Country.

We can aſſure our Readers, that his Majeſty will not viſit his Electoral Dominions this Year.

It ſaid the Queen lies-in in June.

The Houſe of Peers ſat on Monday Night till near Ten o'Clock, and was never known to be fuller.

March 30. By the 8th Article of the Treaty of Hubertſburgh, the Empreſs Queen and the King of Pruſſia reciprocally reſtore the Subjects of either, that were compelled to enter into the Service of the other [illegible].

And by an Article of the Treaty between the Kings of Poland and Pruſſia, the former cedes to the latter all that he poſſeſſes on the further Side of the Oder, and the Sovereignty of the Banks of that River, for which he is to receive an Equivalent, the Amount of which is not mentioned in the Treaty.

Ships of War are fitting out at Deal, to carry over Garriſons to the French Weſt-India Settlements.

To Martinico are to be ſent [illegible] Men. To Guadaloupe 2080. To Cayenne 540. To St. Lucia 900. To St. Domingo 430. In all 5350.

A new Treaty of Commerce is on the Carpet between France and Holland.

A Number of Teachers are preparing to be ſent to New-York and Philadelphia, for the two Colleges eſtabliſhed in thoſe Colonies.

March 31. We are told, that a great Change is already begun amongſt the Miniſtry. It is ſaid his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire will be made Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, in the Room of Lord Bute, who will be made Lord Chamberlain of the Houſhold; Mr. Pitt to be Secretary of State; and ſeveral great Commoners, who now enjoy high Poſts, on their Reſignation, will be created Peers.

Ten Ships of War are ordered to be fitted for North-America, and to be there ſtationed.

John Newe, Eſq; of Plaiſtow, in Eſſex, was laſt Night interred at Weſt-Ham. He has left, amongſt other charitable Legacies, 200l. to the Society for erecting Proteſtant Schools in Ireland; and 500l. for the propagating the Goſpel in foreign Parts.

We are aſſured, by authentic Advices from Paris, that the French Eaſt-India Company have preſented a Memorial to the Court of Verſailles, requeſting to be exempted from ſending a Garriſon to Goree, as it is not worth the Expence.

Col. Joſias Martin, Speaker of the Aſſembly in Antigua, is appointed Captain-General of the Leeward Iſlands, in the Room of George Thomas, Eſq;

The Cargo of the Spaniſh Man of War loſt near Ramſgate, is valued at upwards of 70000l.

If Credit may be given to ſome private Letters by the laſt Dutch Mail, Col. Draper has executed his Expedition againſt the Philippine Iſlands with Succeſs.

Some of the French Inhabitants in Canada are ſelling their Eſtates to Engliſh Subjects, in Order to retire either to France, or to ſome of the French Colonies in America.

Laſt Wedneſday a new Dock was opened at Plymouth Yard, to receive his Majeſty's Ship Union, of 90 Guns; and tho' it was a remarkably low Spring Tide, ſhe went in with the greateſt eaſe, and had more Water than was ſufficient. This Dock is reckoned the largeſt in England, and thought to be equal to any in Europe.

It is ſaid Encouragement will be given to our diſbanded Soldiers to go and ſettle at Quebec, and our other Acquiſitions on the River St. Lawrence.

We hear that the Works of Milford Haven will be carried on, notwithſtanding the Peace, which will be a Means of giving Employment to a conſiderable Number of our diſcharged Seamen and Soldiers.

The French have entirely evacuated all the Places belonging to the King of Pruſſia upon the Lower Rhine, and his Pruſſian Majeſty's Troops have taken peaceable Poſſeſſion of them.

General Kingſley's Regiment, which came over with the ſecond Diviſion from Germany, are ordered to Wincheſter. This Regiment has remarkably diſtinguiſhed itſelf in nine Battles, in one of which, they loſt half their Men, and in the whole have loſt near 2000 Men ſince the Commencement of the War, whoſe Places were continually filled up as Occaſion required, to keep them complete.

Some Officers, and two Engineers, are gone, or going to Dunkirk, to view the Fortifications of that Place, which are to be demoliſhed by Treaty, and to view the new Works erected during the two laſt Wars.

We hear that the Underwriters (in Conſideration of the Bravery of our Britiſh Tars) are come to a Reſolution to inſure no Ships but thoſe that are wholly navigated by ſuch Hands, as it would be very impolitic to continue foreign Sailors in the Merchants Service after the Concluſion of the Peace.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, March [illegible].

"Yeſterday the Tamar Sloop was paid off in the Harbour. There is an Order for ſix ſmall Ships to be put in Commiſſion again, the Rainbow (a 40 Gun Ship, which [illegible]) Vulture, Trial, Tamar, Fly, and Viper Sloops, [illegible] to Halifax."

New-Caſtle, March 19. By a Letter from Berwick, dated the 15th Inſtant, we learn, that dreadful have been the Effects of the late Storm along the Coaſt in that Neighbourhood. A large Veſſel, from [illegible], attempting the Harbour at Holy Iſland, ſtruck upon the [illegible], and immediately ſunk; all the Crew periſhed. Another [illegible], very near the Entrance of the Bar ſuffered the ſame Misfortune; a third, a Sloop, belonging to Lynn, [illegible] with Coals from Sunderland, was [illegible]. B O S T O N, May 23.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Gage arrived here in 22 Days from Martinico. A French Man of War was arrived there from France, with ſeveral French Officers on board, in order ſoon to take Poſſeſſion of that Place.——The Engliſh were in much Confuſion on Account of their moving off ſo ſoon.

"A few Days ago an Expreſs arrived here from Berbicia, giving an Account that the Negroes of 2 Plantations, belonging to Mr. Vanderforter, had burnt the Houſes, murdered the white People, and made off. Another Expreſs arrived Yeſterday, with Advice, that Twenty-two Plantations more were cut off by the Negroes, who in a moſt cruel Manner, murdered all the white People they could come at.——The Inhabitants are in a moſt Miſerable Condition, being obliged to take Refuge on board the Ships, and it is generally thought that the Colony will be intirely ruined."

By Advices from London, of the 29th of March, we learn, that the Houſe of Commons have voted the ſame Sum as a Compenſation to the Northern Colonies for the Year 1762, as was voted the laſt Seſſion for 1761; which Sum was 133,000 l. Sterling.

We alſo hear, that it has been propoſed to lower the Duties on French Molaſſes, from 6d. to 2d. per Gallon, in order the more effectually to ſecure the Payment; which it was thought would be carried through before the Riſing of the Parliament.

Yeſterday arrived here Captain Thompſon, in 19 Days from the Havannah, by whom we learn, that our Troops which remain there are in general very healthy, and that they were preparing to embark, as ſoon as the Spaniſh Soldiers, &c. ſhould arrive to take Poſſeſſion of the Place: That the Spaniſh Prize Men of War were fitted for the Sea, and lay ready to ſail for England; but that the two Ships of the Line found on the Stocks were broke up, and the Dock-yards, Store-houſes, &c. were all deſtroyed, and rendered uſeleſs.

With Pleaſure we can inform the Public, from good Authority, that the Governors of King's College, in this City, have received a Donation by the laſt Veſſels from London, of no leſs than Twelve Hundred Volumes, of valuable, well choſen, and uſeful Books; being Part of the Library of the late eminent and worthy Divine, Doctor BRISTOWE: The Remainder of his Library, conſiſting of ſeveral Hundred Volumes more, is expected every Day. This generous and noble Preſent, muſt afford a ſingular Pleaſure to every Gentleman of Learning amongſt us, and to all that have the Improvement and Well-being of the riſing Generation at Heart: And which, with the Library of the late Hon. Joſeph Murray, Eſq; (a Gift alſo to the College) are immediately to be placed in the College Library, for the Uſe of the Students, under proper Reſtrictions and Regulations. With ſuch eſſential Helps to Learning, may we not flatter ourſelves with the Proſpect of ſoon ſeeing our Youth, hitherto deſtitute of a Seminary of Learning, vie with our Neighbours in the Knowledge and Improvement of the Liberal Arts and Sciences? The riſing Generation will now enjoy a Bleſſing our Fore-fathers were deſtitute of, and reap thoſe valuable Advantages which the generous Donors had in View, by beſtowing their Libraries on an Infant College, that has been honoured and promoted by the Legiſlature, ſeveral publick ſpirited Gentlemen at home and abroad, and which, every Day, becomes more and more deſerving the Countenance, Protection, and Aſſiſtance of every Perſon of Rank and Learning amongſt us.

All the Negroes are taken up and committed to Priſon, and it is hoped will be made Examples of, to deter others from ſuch Villainy.

Bladenſburg, 2d May, 1763.

SEVERAL People who have dealt with me, owe ſmall Ballances, which are very troubleſome to be continued on the Books from Year to Year; I will therefore be obliged to thoſe People if they will pay off, or come and let me know that they want more Time.

Some few owe more conſiderably, and deal alſo at other Stores, whereby they have more Accounts to ſettle before they can know how their Affairs ſtand, which takes up their Time; and beſides it is ſetting an Example to lazy People, to get in Debt at different Places more than they can pay, which brings a Charge on the Trade for bad Debts, and thereby hinders Traders from affording ſo good Terms to thoſe who are Induſtrious, as ſuch People really deſerve. I will therefore be obliged to theſe unſettled Folks if they will pay their Debts, by Credit with ſome Merchant, or otherwiſe, that I may be enabled to oblige my conſtant good Cuſtomers, as much as I deſire to do; for it is very hard that indifferent Cuſtomers ſhould keep the Uſe of Money which is wanted for good Cuſtomers. RICHARD HENDERSON.
